Fieldwork (novel) - Wikipedia

Fieldwork explores the unlikely intersection of ex-patriate lives, and questions whether obsession and cultural immersion are all they're cracked up to be. It's easy to be misled by Fieldwork. It appears to be a memoir written by an American journalist called Mischa Berlinski about his time living in Thailand, and specifically his research into the suicide of a Dutch anthropologist.

Fieldwork - Mischa Berlinski - one more

Fieldwork, by Mischa Berlinski, is a fascinating literary hybrid—part mystery novel, part fictionalized memoir, and part well-research (but completely fictionalized) cultural anthropology. The writing is outstanding—easy and unadorned with lyrical touches that appear out of nowhere to delight and beguile.
